We are proud of the links we are forging with other churches
Here is some news about the German Protestant church from Gisela

Last Saturday, Tony and I joined the German Protestant congregation at their service in El Morche/Torrox to bid farewell to Pastor Manfred Otterstaetter, who is retiring after 53 years in ministry including six years here on the Costa del Sol. Pastor Manfred has been a wonderful ecumenical partner and enjoys great respect and affection. We thank him for his kindness to us and wish him every happiness in his well-deserved retirement. We look forward to welcoming his successor, Fritz Delp, who takes up his post in September. He will join Pastor Wilfried Steinke and the congregations at the two worship centres in Torrox and Marbella.
